

Terry Smirl Trio

Song List

Our performances typically include songs taken from the following list. The vast majority of these songs were composed during the “Golden Age” of American popular song—from the late ‘20’s through the early ‘50’s—and lend themselves perfectly to our classic, straight-ahead jazz style. We specialize in playing very quietly, and our renditions of these tunes work perfectly as background music for cocktails, dinner, mingling, etc. However, we can also “open up” and swing hard for concert settings!

Please note: If you would like us to play a specific song from this list at your event, please request it at least one week prior to your event. You may also request a song that does not appear on this list, but please make such requests at least one month prior to your event. Due to potential problems in stylistic compatibility and/or instrumentation requirements, we cannot guarantee the fulfillment of requests for songs not listed here. We will, however, do our best to be of service.
